

Dear Ass,
(DJ VoiceCrack, E Luv)

Part 1 - DJ VoiceCrack, E Luv

DJ VoiceCrack: Hey E, check out this letter that came off the web at 4:30 am.
E Luv: Oh cool, I luv feedback - what's it say?
DJ VoiceCrack: Oh, you're not going to luv this.
E Luv: If they don't like something, that's cool - that's the only way we can improve.
DJ VoiceCrack: Nah - it's not that.
E Luv: What, what's up?!

DJ VoiceCrack: Here, let me read it. "My name is E-Luv, the Real E-Luv, and if you come to the Bay Area with that name there is going to be problems." How you gonna respond E?

Verse 1 - E Luv

Dear As-, it's time for you to get a fu--in' life
I'm livin' for that money - you livin' for that fu--in' trife
What's in a name, what's in a place - it ain't no thang
To bang - Buffalo Grove is where them fu--in' Killaz Hang
They laugh about my street cred sayin' the suburbs ain't shi-
bush ain't from the hood and he's killed thousands, so you better watch it
Not even tryin' to take it there - got too much death in our streets
But I'll be da-ned if I let this motherfu--er run over me

Threaten me, this beat has brought you to your fu--in' knees
You need to concede anybody from the Bay can see your defeat
Rarely keep beef cause it spoils - they got luv for E in the Bay
Give a fu-- where you from - bring that noise, I'll bring that fu--in' pain
You're a hater so fu-- you - matter of fact, fu-- your whole crew
Cause they probably just like you - bring them fools, what the fu-- they gon' do
All of y'all through - cause I got crew too, but my Crew Deep
You an Internet thug, bangin' online when the rest of the world is sleep

Fu--in' geek - don't sleep on the E-L-U-V
Maybe if you'd bought a CD, you'd realize you shouldn't fu-- with me
Instead of coming against the E out of no fu--in' where
I don't even know who the fu-- you are, and at this point I don't care
Using that feedback form for constructive criticism is one thing
But using it in a threatening manner is something different entirely
More gradeschool as- bitc- shi- from another jackhole, hatin'
So I'll just bust a verbal cap in your as- and thank you for the motivation

Part 2 - E Luv

Welcome back aHellerax! We will always be cool, old friend.
What up DJ VoiceCrack, GMNT, Earl Solow - Mac-X Crew in this motherfu--er

Verse 2 - E Luv

Dear As-, I'm gonna put this song on every site we're on Acid Planet, Download, Myspace, and Def Mute Records Dot Com
Undecided if I should have sections for Internet exclusives
Shi- is bangin' - it may become the first track of my new album
And you know what, I plan to ride through your hood top down (DJ VoiceCrack: Of course.)
Doin' 5 under the speed limit - blastin' this treacherous sound
Then I'll stop, park, get out and walk all around
Hummin' the beat plus rappin' a capella all up in your town

On your home turf - I plan to book a fu--in' gig
And dis you to your face, I know you can't wait for me to perform it
Think I won't bitc-, say I won't kid - must be stupid
I've already punked your as- across the motherfu--in' Internet
Where the fu-- yo lyrics at - give me some mutual respect
As far as the world's concerned, I'm one of the hardest motherfu--az in rap
And if it wasn't enough, I put Buffalo Grove on the map
Innovatin' in an industry that' stagnatin' - not many can claim that

So give me some fu--in' props where props are fu--in' do
If you do something noteworthy - I'll be giving props to you
Hate is like a disease, and I read your email like bitc- please
Showed it to all my homies, be about you - quit worryin' about me
Not quite sure what the fu-- you were trying to accomplish
I know for certain - I'm not changing my name across all those web pages

One can never be sure, but part of me thinks you were joking
If not, GMNT told me to strip you of your name and just call you Toby

Part 3 - E Luv

Jimmy Blades, Guttred Babies & Pretty Rainbows, Fulcrum Zero - it's our time
Nobody in the industry is coming like this - Def Mute Records whut?!

Verse 3 - E Luv

Dear As-, verse 3 and this actually hurts me
Much more than you because I've wasted this fu--in' beat
But even you gotta admit this fu--in' shi- was sweet
And maybe one day down the road, you and I can do some networking
Fu-- beef, let's squash that shi- immediately
And reach a greater level of maturity so we can all eat
I'm talkin' about civility - the opposite of shia vs sunni
A little red meat is healthy, but as they say - too much of anything

Is bad - except for my name sake carrying a good connotation
Chokin' the shi- out the microphone, be E Luv: The Egregious I
Executive Producer, Vicious Lyricist, motherfu--az sittin' pissed
And I'm like fu-- this, the point of this shi- you must o' missed
There are musicians on the radio and then there are those
That cus too fu--in' much but best believe would eviscerate the pros
Motherfu--az creatively creating the labels they choose
Tight lyricists in their own rite that make their own fu--in' rules

I don't think I ever recall the Dr. Dre of NWA
Taking it to this level against the Ed Lover Doctor Dre
Because it's irrelevant, rep your name - you have my permission
Cause if you ain't talkin' music, leave me the fu-- up out of it
One more thing... don't ever in your motherfu--in' life threaten me
I've got too much to lose, and you don't have enough to gain from fu--in' wit' E
DJ VoiceCrack on the fu--in' beat, Def Mute Records on that as-
Grab your pen if you want to compete - there's your fu--in' feedback

Part 4 - E Luv

On behalf of Def Mute Records, I want to thank everybody across the world that's been showin' us luv.
But for this punk motherfu--er, grow up. Yo DJ VoiceCrack - take us out.
